

Intern Positions at nth Solutions, LLC

Marketing Intern

The single marketing intern will fulfill all three of these responsibilities.

Web Developer:

Develops websites for clients and consumer products. Works collaboratively with the entire marketing team to achieve websites which are engaging, creative, and deliver on a clear Call-To-Action.

What to Bring:

Knowledge of HTML, CSS, Javascript, J-Query, and Wordpress

What you Will Gain:

Expertise in troubleshooting, front-end design, research

Graphic Designer / Video Editor:

Designs flyers, brochures, and graphic elements, in addition to creating videos to support all marketing tasks for clients. Position requires the ability to creatively think through the process of creating design elements from initial concept through final draft.

What to Bring:

Proficiency or a willingness to learn design software (Adobe Photoshop and/or Adobe Illustrator) and Adobe Premiere, knowledge of filmmaking and aesthetics, some photography skills recommended

Digital Art portfolio required (drawings, films, school projects are all sufficient)*

What you Will Gain:

Understanding of applicable marketing strategies, creative direction

Article / Web Content Writer:

Draft articles related to assigned subject matter, aid in the development of website copy, and create social media posts which creating engagement with the audience. Also responsible for maintaining social media accounts including Facebook, Linked In, and Instagram.

What to Bring:

Notable skill in cohesive creative and technical writing, managing social media, and research

Sample writing required (written articles, blog posts, or school essays are all sufficient)*

What you Will Gain:

Insights into marketing strategy in product development, professional communication, published work, and creative direction